

São Paulo City

Now reaching the outstanding milestone of almost 12.110.000 inhabitants*, in part as a consequence of immigration from all over the world, São Paulo is the most important financial and economic center of South America. The town is considered the city of business and hosts about 90,000 events a year. It offers a great diversity in terms of leisure, entertainment and culture (cinemas, theaters, night clubs, restaurants, parks, museums etc), besides options for eating out that embrace many different cuisines from around the globe as well as typical dishes from several regions of the country.

São Francisco Law School

The Law School of São Paulo (FD) was created em 1827, years after the proclamation of the independence of Brasil. From the beginning, it was settled on the Largo de São Francisco, on the central city area. The first building, an old convent, was later replaced in the 1930s with a new, large and monumental building.

The Faculty of Law was also the first institution to join the University of São Paulo at the time of its creation in 1934.
