

São Paulo City

Now reaching the outstanding milestone of almost 12.110.000 inhabitants*, in part as a consequence of immigration from all over the world, São Paulo is the most important financial and economic center of South America. The town is considered the city of business and hosts about 90,000 events a year. It offers a great diversity in terms of leisure, entertainment and culture (cinemas, theaters, night clubs, restaurants, parks, museums etc), besides options for eating out that embrace many different cuisines from around the globe as well as typical dishes from several regions of the country.

EACH - Escola de Artes, Ciências e Humanidades

The new campus houses an integrated unit that concentrates courses in the areas of Arts, Sciences and Humanities, which are not offered by other units of USP in the capital city of São Paulo. It has a full-time faculty and research projects involving those areas. In terms of infrastructure, it has, among other facilities, a Central Library of high standard, thematic and integrated laboratories, sophisticated facilities and equipment, as well as support services. Special attention is being given to the development of extension activities that take into account the peculiar characteristics of the eastern region of the city of São Paulo, marked by its enormous population concentration, socio-cultural diversity, socioeconomic inequalities and current processes of economic and urban restructuring that reach their diverse neighborhoods and their communities.

How to reach EACH?
