

Home for approximately 397,000 people*, Piracicaba is one of the largest economies in the state of São Paulo and in Brazil as a whole, and its agricultural industry is largely derived from sugar cane. Crossed by the Piracicaba River, the city's history has always been a symbiosis between the river and the town. The university campus occupies 56 hectares (aprox. 138 acres), is composed of parks and woodlands, and has a vigorous historical heritage.
